

ASLA HAWAII PRESENTS

MAKING YOUR IDEAS POP:

FAST CONCEPT DRAWING TECHNIQUES

July 18, 2009 from 9:30 am – 12:00 noon

Come learn how to formulate and communicate your ideas with quick sketch drawing. There's no ability pre-requisites for this session except an open mind and desire to doodle your ideas into art. Join the Hawaii Chapter of the ASLA for a fun morning of drawing in a magnificent setting at the Cooke Estate in Manoa Valley.

The Cooke Estate, Kūali'i, was built in 1911 by Charles Montague Cooke Jr. and named for a great O'ahu chief, the home and gardens evoke the graciousness of Hawai'i's past. The estate includes an impressive garden of native plants. The Estate is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Kūka'ō'ō Heiau located on the Cooke Estate has watched over Mānoa Valley. It survives as the last intact Hawaiian temple in the greater ahupua'a of Waikīkī.

Steve Sue parlayed an education in fine art (UCLA) and law (UC Berkeley) into a career as a strategic illustrator that positioned him as the quintessential "fly on the wall" to a variety of businesses including mega-resorts, retail architecture and entertainment productions.

Steve has been a hired gun to numerous casino resort projects around the globe, advertising agencies in the SF Bay Area, and a variety of music and theatrical producers.

Drinks and snacks will be provided. Bring a collapsible chair and your own art supplies including sketching pad and pencils. Meet at Manoa Valley District Park to carpool to the estate.
